IES District Road Show "Lighting and Daylighting for Sustainable Commercial Spaces"

The speaker, Chip Israel, is the recently elected IES Vice President and is also the President of Design Alliance, an internationally-known, full-service architectural lighting design firm based in Long Beach, CA with offices in Chicago, Dubai, and Denver. Mr. Israel will discuss the merits of IES membership (including an overview of the new Handbook published in July) and provide an introduction to the new Strategic IES Plans with a view to the future. He will then deliver a one hour AIA/

USGBC and IES registered presentation entitled: Lighting and Daylighting for Sustainable Commercial Spaces. The presentation will focus on identifying lighting technology and daylighting integration opportunities that support the future of sustainable design (inclusive of the LEED process) as well as fulfilling the energy code requirements notwithstanding the benefits of maximizing the quality execution of lighting in the space.

The District Road Show expenses will cover the Handbook costs, some miscellaneous costs for room rentals (if necessary by the Section) and Mr. Israel's travel expenses. In May 2011, the Board of Directors voted to support this activity for a period of two years by drawing funds from the Education Fund to support the local membership, on recommendation from the four Regional Directors. Mr. Israel's time is 100% voluntary. This is a great opportunity to leverage the support from IES to furthering our Local Section activities.

We are very fortunate to have Chip visit The Cleveland IES Section. As an additional incentive to attend, we will have a drawing at the end of the presentation for a new IES handbook donated by the IES District Road Show.

President's Report

We are very fortunate to have Chip Israel, the new IES Vice President, come to Cleveland as part of the IES District Road Show to do a presentation. The Program will be a Breakfast Program at the Hilton Garden Inn Downtown Cleveland on November 10. Chip will discuss the merits of IES Membership, an overview of the new Handbook and the new IES Strategic Plans. Chip will also do a one hour AIA/USBGC/PDH accredited presentation on "Lighting and Daylighting for Sustainable Commercial Spaces." At the end of the program, we will have a drawing to see who will take a copy of the new IES Handbook back to their office, compliments of the IES District Road Show. Bring your business card and put it in the container when you arrive for a chance to win. For more information on the program, see the front page of the Lumen Press.

We would like to thank Bob Doherty of Wolff Brothers for sponsoring and arranging the October Clambake. We would also like to thank Scott Wilson and Dyke Riffle for their presentations. Dyke had brought up a few items in his presentation about new lamp technology and new kids on the block which were very enlightening and informative.

In December, we are looking at a Lighting Controls Commissioning Program sponsored by Myriad Energy Solutions. We are still working on the details, so stay tuned for a date and time for the presentation sometime in early December.

Henry Barker went through the Membership Roster and made a list of IES Cleveland Section Members that have been with us for 25 years or more. Borrowing a quote from my niece, If you "turn the page," you will see a list of our members with 25 years or more serving our section.

Thank you for being an IES Member and hope to see you at the next IES Program.
